2022 Elementary Science Fair Highlights!

Each spring ISD 192's five elementary schools host their own unique science fairs. While the details of the fairs vary, all participants engage in inquiry, data collection, analysis, and communicating their results. The winning students in grades 3-5 are qualified to enter the Southern Minnesota Regional Science and Engineering Fair. Farmington Area Public Schools would like to extend a warm congratulations to all the elementary students who participated in this year's science fair.

None of this would be possible without the generous assistance of many volunteers. Thanks to those who lent their time and knowledge to make these events successful. Below are some highlights from each school's 2022 science fair.

Akin Road Elementary School (ARES)

Congratulations to all the Akin Road Elementary students who enthusiastically participated in the ARES 2022 Science Fair. The fair was once again held virtually; however participants were honored in person during the school day.

5th Grade: Nora Fransen (1st place); Kilee Peine (2nd place); Easton Brett (3rd place). Honorable Mentions: Jake Carlson, Mackenzie Andrews, Claire McKinley, Addison Hagman, Morgan Pryde, and Violet Straw.

4th Grade: Alaya Ketcher (1st place); Elsa Dokken (2nd place); Roman Butterfield (3rd place).

K-3rd Grade: Nine students from kindergarten through third grade received ribbons and buttons for their excellent participation in the 2022 Akin Road Elementary Science Fair: Jacob Macmillian (kindergarten); Julia Ketcher (1st grade); Hunter McNamara (1st grade); Nora Robinson (1st grade); Samuel Mekhail (2nd grade); Benjamin Macmillian (2nd grade); Jaxten Rivard (2nd grade); Penny Lyon (3rd grade); and, Malachai Vogel (3rd grade).

Thank you to Sara Drazkowski for coordinating the 2022 ARES Science Fair.

Farmington Elementary School (FES)

This year Farmington Elementary hosted a virtual science fair. Students were able to scan a QR code with their school-issued iPads to view all the science fair projects and judging happened online. Congratulations to all the FES students who participated in the 2022 FES Science Fair!

Seven students from Farmington Elementary School qualified to move on to the regional science fair:

3rd Grade: Christina Rice

4th Grade: Katrina Deplazes; McKenzie Schadt; Hannah Hovden

5th Grade: Samuel Wolfgram; Lydia Johnson; and, Eliana Elvestad

Thank you to Susan Fagnant for coordinating the 2022 FES Science Fair.

Meadowview Elementary School (MVES)

Congratulations to all the Meadowview Elementary students who participated in the 2022 Science Fair! This year's science fair was primarily virtual, although families did have an opportunity to walk through and see the projects during conferences. Each student received judges feedback virtually. Any student in grades 3-5 who wanted to was able to submit a project for the regional science fair. Way to go MVES students!

Thank you to Emily Holley for coordinating the 2022 MVES Science Fair.

North Trail Elementary School (NTES)

Congratulations to all the North Trail Elementary students who participated in the 2022 Science Fair! This year's science fair was conducted virtually. Students submitted videos of their projects and judges provided virtual feedback.

Thank you to Charles Wobeck for coordinating the 2022 NTES Science Fair.

Riverview Elementary School (RVES)

Congratulations to all the Riverview Elementary students who participated in the 2022 Science Fair! This year all 3-5th grade students who followed the scientific method were given the option to move on to regionals.

3rd Grade: Landon (What material creates the most static electricity?); Gabby (Do Chia seeds grow better in the sun or dark?); Paisley (Dry Ice Comet)

4th Grade: Jameson (Which chewing gum will produce the biggest bubbles?); Jackson (What's in snow?)

5th Grade: Brooklyn (Which disinfectant spray kills the most germs?); Parker (How will different temperatures affect the height of a basketball bounce?); Josie (Orcas in Captivity); Kendall (What is the temperature difference between outside and in an igloo?); Josh (Which soda explodes the most when shaken?); Sophia (Making Elephant Toothpaste); Levi (Battery Train)

Thank you to Benjamin Clausen for coordinating the 2022 RVES Science Fair.

Holmes named Schmitt Music Educator of the Year

Erin Holmes, Director of Bands at Farmington High School, was recently named Schmitt Music's 2021 Educator of the Year in the high school category. According to their website, the award was established by Schmitt Music and the SDC (Schmitt Director Center) "in an effort to recognize the work of outstanding school music educators in the Midwest [and] find the best of the best." This is a highly respected recognition among music educators and FHS staff have expressed excitement to see their colleague honored in this way.

In an interview with Schmitt Music, Holmes shared about her love of teaching and music: "Music has always been my home base, a place where I felt accepted, challenged, and accountable. I don't see what I do as a 'job' per say but as the center of who I am. I approach myself, my kids, my students, my relationships with honesty, trust, accountability, and have high expectations with everything and everyone around me. I knew at a young age that music was who I was and I never wanted to lose that. Being called to be a teacher, I knew I had the opportunity to share that with others. I get to go each day to school and be influenced by some of the greatest humans on this planet and I am grateful for being able to 'get better every day.'"

When asked why she thought she had been nominated, Holmes said, "I am hoping that I have been able to help inspire, grow, or bring someone's passion for music and learning to fruition." Many Farmington students would say that Ms. Holmes has done exactly that for them through their experiences in Farmington Bands. Congratulations to Erin Holmes on this meaningful recognition!

Nelson receives ISD 917 Inclusivity Award

Congratulations to Alysha Nelson on winning the Intermediate School District 917 Inclusive Educator Award in Farmington Area Public Schools, ISD 917! Nelson is part of the Special Education team at Riverview Elementary School. She was nominated by Michelle Shanley for this honor. A big thank you to Alysha for all she does to serve our students and a shout out to all our Special Education staff and ISD 917 for being excellent partners in meeting the needs of our learners.

Samantha Moehle Recognized as FHS Athena Award Winner

Farmington High School is proud to recognize Samantha Moehle as its 2021-22 Athena Award winner. Samantha is the daughter of Bill and Julie Moehle. She is a member of the Girls' Hockey and Girls' Lacrosse teams at Farmington High School.

In girls' hockey, Moehle has earned a total of four athletic letters, been recognized as All-Conference twice and All-Conference Honorable Mention twice. She also served as the team's captain.

Head Girls' Hockey Coach, Jon Holmes said, "Sam has one of the greatest work ethics I have seen in a hockey player as she is inquisitive and will try anything you ask of her to help the team. She has a special rapport with people due to her inherent nature where she treats everyone with the respect and enthusiasm she demands from herself. She has a great sense of how to handle many different situations appropriately and the vision required to provide the support and assistance to our team and community that has allowed people around her to have a successful experience. She is the most hard working and dedicated individual who always keeps the best interests of those around her in mind when making decisions. Sam is an outstanding advocate for her teams, the community, and her friends".

In girls' lacrosse, Moehle has earned a total of 5 athletic letters, has been recognized as All-Conference and All-Section, and is a four-time team captain. Steph Lavictoire, Head Girls' Lacrosse Coach said, "She is dynamic in her abilities to play any position on the field that we ask her to. We are thankful for her contributions to our program and the youth program. She is a great role model and she is very deserving to be Farmington's Athena winner. Congratulations, Sam! We are so proud of you and excited to have a memorable senior season".

When asked what being recognized as the Athena Award winner meant to her, Moehle said, "I'm extremely honored to be receiving this award. I would like to thank my family, coaches, and teammates to help me get where I am today."

Congratulations, Samantha, on your Athena Award!

About the St. Paul Area Athena Awards:

The St. Paul Area Athena Awards program honors outstanding female high school senior student-athletes from St. Paul and suburban public and independent high schools for their athletic achievements. The award is based on excellence in individual sports or for participation and accomplishments in team sports.

FHS Speech Highlights

The Farmington High School Speech team has had a strong season competing at invitationals across the region and even hosting their own.

One of their big highlights of the season was in February when they competed in the Star Tribune Eastview Lightning Classic. This is one of the largest tournaments in the state of Minnesota with over 1,000 students from 36 schools competing. Farmington Speech team members competed in two divisions, Open (for more novice members) and Championship (for more experienced speakers). Senior Captain Ashlyn Cox broke into the finals of the Championship division. This was a first for Farmington at this tournament. She placed 5th out of 40 competitors!

In March the team competed in the Shakopee Invitational where Cox placed 2nd in the Next In Finals of Dramatic Interpretation and several team members just missed out on making finals. Following the Shakopee Invitational, the team competed at the National Speech and Debate Association (NSDA) tournament. Full results are available at www.farmington.k12.mn.us.

Read Across America Highlights

In early March ISD 192 elementary schools celebrated Read Across America Day by — you guessed it — reading! There were also opportunities to explore literature through dress up and play. Read Across America was established by the National Education Association (NEA) in 1998 for the purpose of “motivating children and teens to read through events, partnerships, and reading resources that are about everyone, for everyone.”

ISD 192 students explored a wide variety of fiction and nonfiction literature over a week of activities. Some schools hosted a

“read-a-thon” where students spent all day reading and being read to by teachers and guest readers visiting the schools. Some schools hosted dress up days where students dressed as favorite book characters. Many children and families found new stories to love and learned new things through reading during Read Across America.

Strengthening the fabric of our community.

Tigers Boys' Basketball finish strong; 2nd place in SSC

Boys Basketball hosted Eastview High School on Friday, March 4 in a SSC game that would determine 2nd place in the conference. Farmington proved they're one of the best beating the Lightning 75-68 to cap off the regular-season.

Sam Hoffman continued his big week scoring 19 points for Farmington on Friday night. Hoffman was 4/11 from 3-point land and hit 7/8 of his shots from the stripe. Kyle Hrcir and Brendan Ebel, again, contributed equally on offense scoring 11 points each. Hrcir would shoot 5/11 from the field and Ebel was 3/6 and knocked down all 5 of his free throw opportunities.

Farmington celebrated senior night and the seniors showed up big time on the floor. Ben Buesgens scored 6 points, Connor Weed scored 3, Zach Dorchmann scored 4, Noah Halverson had 3, and Zach Cochnauer had 3.

Farmington entered the Section 1 AAAA playoffs as the #1 seed. They had a strong start to playoffs, defeating #8 Rochester John Marshall 80-53 in the opening round of the Section 1 AAAA Tournament. The Tigers advanced to host #4 Lakeville South on Saturday, March 12. Visit our website for the latest update (www.farmington.k12.mn.us)

#6 Tigers Girls' Basketball ends season at #2 Lakeville North

The Farmington Tigers Girls' Basketball team saw their season come to an end after losing to #2 Lakeville North in the Section 1 AAAA semifinal game. The Tigers lost 37-53.

Farmington kept the game close, trailing by only 5 at halftime. The Tigers couldn't keep up in the second half scoring just 15 points.

Both Rose Wille and Hannah Hansen finished with 9 points. Marin Blom had 7, and Grace Schaffer had 5.

Tigers Girls' Basketball Earns Academic Gold Award

The Farmington Tigers Girls' Basketball Team has earned Academic All-State Gold recognition for the 2021-22 season.

In basketball, Academic All-State is broken down into two categories, Gold and Silver. Silver recognizes teams with GPAs 3.50-3.74 while Gold recognizes teams with GPAs above 3.75. The Farmington Tigers have a team GPA of 3.88!

Senior Rose Wille was also recognized with the Individual Academic All-State Award.

Congratulations to our student-athletes for their exceptional commitment to both the classroom and the court.

Boys' Hockey season comes to an end in Section 1 AA quarterfinal

Boys' Hockey traveled to Rochester on Thursday, February 24 for the Section 1 AA quarterfinal game. #5 Farmington lost the game to #4 Rochester Mayo 4-2.

Mayo scored the only goal of the first period to lead 1-0 at the break. In the second period, Mayo would score first to extend the lead 2-0.

Farmington's Ryan Holmstrom scored an even strength goal seconds later to get the Tigers on the board. Luke Walton would score the next goal at 13:28 to tie the game 2-2. Before the period ended, Mayo scored a goal to lead 3-2.

In the final period, Mayo scored to build another 2-goal lead. The 2021-22 Tigers finish the season 8-16-1, 5-12 in the SSC.

Girls' Hockey Season Ends in Quarterfinals

Girls' Hockey opened the Section 1 AA hockey tournament at home on Wednesday, February 9. The #3 seeded Tigers were hosting the #6 seeded Owatonna Huskies.

The game was close throughout the night. The first period ended in a 0-0 tie. Farmington's Sam Moehle scored the game's first goal after she scored a shorthanded, second period goal. The Tigers held the lead 1-0 at the end of the period. Owatonna tied the game at 1:55 before Ava Johnson gave Farmington the lead back. Just over one minute later, Owatonna would score another goal to force overtime.

At 2:12 in the first overtime period, Owatonna scored, ending the Tigers' season. Farmington finishes its 2021-22 campaign 11-15, 9-9 SSC.

Farmington Tigers Dance Team (FTDT) Competes at Section 1 AAA Dance Meet

The Farmington Tigers Dance Team traveled to Bloomington Kennedy High School on Saturday, February 12 to compete in the Section 1 AAA Dance Meet.

The Tigers put together a pair of impressive performances earning a 5th place finish in both the Jazz and High Kick portions of the competition.

In a season filled with adversity, the FTDT continued to excel and rise with every occasion. Saturday night's performance at the Section 1 AAA meet was no exception. We are proud of the work our student-athletes and coaches put into every practice and competition, and thankful they are all Tigers!

Garden Club at Boeckman Middle School

Robert Boeckman Middle School has had an active garden club for many years now. Students have a plot of land on school property where they can grow flowers, fruits, and vegetables with the help of faculty advisers — but the garden club is active even in the winter months! When they're not working in the garden they're learning how to use the fruits of their labor. They make everything from salsa to zucchini bread to enjoy depending on what crops are available, taking their skills literally from the farm to the table.

Passion First at Farmington Elementary

Minecraft is a popular video game where players can build, craft, dig, mine and more. It encourages creativity, teamwork, and problem solving skills. Farmington Elementary (FES) hosts a Minecraft club where students have the opportunity to play together. This is only one of the ways that FES supports a "Passion First" mindset. Throughout the school year the Farmington Elementary community focuses on seven key mindsets to support learning and growth. The fourth mindset and the focus during the month of March is "Passion First."

In preparation for "Passion Day" on March 16th students, teachers, and school staff discussed playing to your strengths, exploring your interests, establishing core values, and being authentic. Farmington schools work hard to help students find their passions — whether it's Minecraft, music, math, or something else — and use them to maximize learning and growth throughout their lifetimes. It all starts with mindset.

Twosday Day Fun!

February 2, 2022 — or 2-22-22 — was celebrated as Twosday at Meadowview Elementary School. Everything from outfits to art projects was two themed. Staff posted pictures of themselves when they were 2 years old and students enjoyed trying to guess which picture was their teacher. Fun was had by all on the special day!
